

DIY

Spooky Celebration in Seconds

Our favorite new craft book serves up instant Halloween decor

1 Boo Bottles

Raid your recycling bin to make these glass ghosts.

- Remove labels and caps from bottles (we used Perrier ones here).
- Spray-paint white.
- Draw on faces with black marker.
- Throw in colorful straws for cute centerpieces.

2 Cobweb Coasters

Cups look creepy when sitting on these spindly saucers.

- Hook five bobby pins onto a  $\frac{3}{8}$ -inch flat metal washer.
- Wrap twine around and thread through each bobby pin.
- Spray-paint everything white.
- Scatter small toy spiders around the table.

3 Vampire Napkin Rings

Serious chompers make your table settings look so cute it's scary.

- Splash white cloth napkins with red Kool-Aid.
- Thread a white twist tie through a set of plastic vampire teeth.
- Secure twist tie around center of napkin.

To watch our editor make these quick crafts, download the Reader's Digest app.

To remove the stains after the party, wash with bleach.

InstaCraft—a new book by Reader's Digest editor Alison Caporimo—is available at ulyssespress.com and wherever books are sold.